Warpwire Support Guides

Summary

Warpwire is the media library hosting platform used at the School of Management. Use this article to access Warpwire's support guides and videos.

Step-by-step guide

1. For more information on how to use Warpwire, please visit the Support guides located please visit the Warpwire Support Guides located here.
2. For specific information, you may find what you are looking for here: (or view the full General tutorial video here)
   - Intro / Warpwire in Canvas (0:00)
   - Media Library Settings (2:20)
   - Individual Media Settings (4:12)
   - Tags (5:20)
   - Captions (6:32)
   - User Analytics (7:25)
   - Uploading Files (9:06)
   - Sorting and Finding (10:33)
   - Batch Edit Mode (11:50)
   - Warpwire in the text editor (12:52)
   - Recording Videos (13:50)
   - The Warpwire Video Player (16:05)
   - Sharing Videos (17:35)
   - The Drupal module training section using the Cases website as an example is available here
   - Tutorial video starting at 3 minutes, covers Drupal module
3. Additionally, Warpwire has a large collection of more specific tutorial videos on the Warpwire website. These, along with the written documentation, will all be updated in the coming months, to match the changes of Warpire's 1.8 release. Those links might prove useful to those who want more specific and in-depth support.
4. Warpwire Support Guides
5. Warpwire Support Videos

Help us improve

Your Rating:
Results: 23 rates

Related articles

- Warwire: Cross-listed Courses
- Warwire
- Canvas: Video Access
- Canvas Known Issue: Course videos not automatically linking in Warpwire
- Canvas: Powtoon Videos and Closed Captioning