Analyst Reports

Summary

In partial fulfillment of the requirements for the MBA degree at the Yale School of Management, students in the Security Analysis course produce industry and company valuation reports and guides. The faculty has often noted that many of the reports are of the highest quality, reflecting both the dedication of our students and the intelligence they bring to their work. The work is published on a web site and made available to the public for review and comment.

Features

- Web site makes it possible for the general public to see this work of the students http://analystreports.som.yale.edu/
